The following has been given publicity by Superintendent John M. Mills of the city schools: To the patrons of the public

Military drill has been added to the curriculum of the Ogden High school and it is now required that all male students of the first and zecond years shall take this training and wear the uniform hereafter.

"It is desired that certain facts and information be presented to all par-ents regarding the providing and wearing of the cadet uniform which has been adopted.

with cap to match. It is made to der, of all wool goods and is guaran-teed to fit.

"During the last year the uniforms were purchased at Columbus, Ohio, at a cost of from $16.50 to $18.50, including the express charges

"Now, from an economical point of view the wearing of a uniform has a distinct advantage over civilian clothes. They are better made and of better material and wearing quality than average suits. The blouses have no pockets to fill with material that would pull them out of shape. There is no shirt exposed to view and one is not even the state of th one is not even necessary as clips are attached to hold the white collars Neck ties are not worn and the necessity of buying and wearing them is dispensed with. The cap is included in the cost of the uniform and will outwear any ordinary hat. A boy in uniform will take more pride in his appearance and will consequently take appearance and will consequently take better care of his clothing, while you are relieved from buying hats and ties.

"The benefits and advantages of military drill are too obvious and many to go into this communication. It will suffice to say that the work provides a uniform and splendid ex-ercise, highly beneficial to all and harmful to none. Patriotism, line, self control, rapid thought coup led with rapid action, the happy facul-ty of obeying and commanding—these are only some of the benefits to be derived.

"The uniformed cadets receive maximum of the advantages of mil-itary training. The improvement in the set up and physique of a cadet after having drilled and worn a uniafter having drilled and worn a uni-form for a short time is obviously no-ticeable. His erect, manly carriage is a matter of pride to himself, his par-ents, and his school. He realizes that being in a uniform a slovenly and un couth manner of conduct will be glar-ingly conspicuous; that a cigarette in his mouth, his presence in a pool room, or other unseemly conduct at once subjects himself and his school to ridicule and condemnation. This realization that he carried with him the honor of his school creates a spir-it among uniformed cadets that is in-valuable. valuable

According to the requisitions asked for by the new fire chief in his petition to the city council last evening in a sad state of repair.

Fire Chief A. B. Carfield, just appointed, informed the council, through an official communication, that the fire protection in the business part of the city is inadequate. He recommended that water mains be laid through the center of the two blocks bounded by Washington and Grant avenues, from Twenty-third street to Twenty-fifth street and that fire plugs be placed in the center of each of these blocks to furnish an additional supply of water in case of a serious fire in the business heart of the city

The present fire alarm system is al so inadequate and not to be relied pon. He recommended that a new storage battery be installed through ut the city.

The hose wagon at station No. 1 is ntiquated and not fit for use in a city of this importance and he suggested that a new one be purchased.

The chief stated that station No. 2 vas in bad repair, that the roof leak-ed badly, the plastering was falling off and that fresh paint was needed broughout. He also recommended that the lower floor of station No. 1 needs a quantity of fresh paint, as does the fire alarm boxes throughout

Two of the fire horses were report-d to be in poor condition and in need of recuperation by being turned out pasture for some time.

The chief's communication also ouched upon the matter of smoke pro-ectors, the one now in the possession of the department being insufficient for present-day needs. He recom-mended that six additional ones be urchased by the city.

The communication was not discuss ed by the council, but was referred without comment to the fire commit-

MOVED A HOUSE WHILE

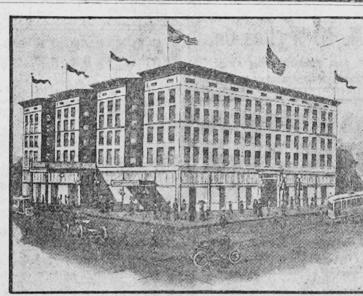

OWNERS WERE NOT LOOKING Denver. Colo., May 24.—If the alle-gations of Mrs. Sophia Ferguson, contained in a complaint filed in the dis trict court yesterday are true, L. E. Wright, of this city, is the champion of the many varieties of light fingered gentry. According to Mrs. Ferguson, Wright stole a house.

The woman says she bought the house, a five-room frame cottage on the installment plan, making the final the installment plan, making the final payment the first of April. When she prepared to move in she found it occupied by the Wrights, who refused to leave. Mrs. Ferguson and her husband piled their effects on the lawn, and laid slege to the house. But while their vigilance was relaxed, Mrs. Ferguson declares, Wright secured help and moved the house to an adjoining and moved the house to an adjoining lot, where he continues to bid defiance to the Fergusons.
